

The Howard County Family Institute presents Parent's Survival Guide For the Elementary Years

Changes occur with your child as they grow and develop in the elementary school years. Children fluctuate between independence and dependence and the combination can bring a wide range of behavior issues.

Attend this workshop to help understand how to help your 5 to 12 year old:

- Set the stage to create positive situations for empowerment and pride
- Develop consequences that work
- Gain strategies to handle oppositional behaviors
- Learn ways to develop better homework habits

When: Thursday, April 19th, 6:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Location: Running Brook Elementary School

5215 W. Running Brook Rd. Columbia, MD 21044

Cost: FREE! Space is limited and registration is required!

Who Should Attend: Parents and Guardians
